

Biography

Alabaster Grace "Be Exalted"

We are called by God to be good stewards of the gifts and talents he has given to each of us.

As a child, Joan loved to sing using her playground swing set as her microphone, singing through the tubing. She would make up simple bible songs to share with others. Later, she grew up and trained as a Soprano. After surrendering her life to the Lord, He began giving her Praise and Worship songs like downloads in her quiet worship time with Him. She now feels called to share these beautiful songs of the Lord with as many people who can hear and be touched by them.

Brad, her husband, wanted to be a drummer as a boy, but his mother gently guided him into the direction of classical guitar. His classical guitar training has rendered in a unique style for playing both acoustic and electric guitar, and his sensitivity and heart for the Lord convey in his playing. Prior to meeting Joan, Brad longed in his faith walk to witness and draw others closer to the Lord through music.

When Joan and Brad met in 2012, they sensed God had special plans for them to do music together. From the start, Joan's voice and Brad's guitar has fit perfectly in their original music and resulting in the forming of Alabaster Grace. Working together, Brad and Joan create a wide and diverse style of music ranging from tender classical to contemporary Christian rock, and with a number of unique styles in between. Alabaster Grace is the Yorktown, Virginia, husband and wife duo of Brad and Joan Perry, and the special friends who play music with them.

Some of their music influences are Chris Tomlin, Kari Jobe, Hillsong, and Paul Wilbur.

Brad and Joan have a heart for music ministry, and the mission of Alabaster Grace is to share this music so that the listener can be transported into the presence of God where His grace and mercy flow freely. Their songs are a launching point for the Lord to do a deeper work in the hearts of listeners, stirring them to want to know Him better. They want the music to bring hope and healing not only emotionally and spiritually, but also physically. It is their hearts' desire that people will be drawn closer into His presence and that they will hear and respond to Him.

Their first release is an EP, self-titled, Alabaster Grace. You can contact them at band@alabastergrace.com for more information or booking for ministry opportunities.