
Biography

Brad Guldemond "You Always Know"

Brad is a worship leader and singer/songwriter who is passionate about leading people into God's presence so they can be restored, refreshed and reignited in their walk with God and service to the world.

From an early age Brad has always had a passion for music. He starting playing piano at the age of 8 and developed a love for playing pop songs and improvising during his teenage years.

Brad's musical gifts were developed when he joined a band at his church in Waterloo, Ontario. Through this experience he learned how to read chord charts, play within a band, and experienced playing in front of many different audiences.

In high school he co-wrote a cd with his high school band Unfazed, called "Fade Away" and played locally in Southern Ontario.

His song "Real Life Offering" is a featured song on World Visions CD / Book compilation "THIS IS OUR LOVE". "Who Am I (Free)" won an award for Outstanding Songwriting from the Great American Song Contest. Brad's song "When I Walk Through the Dark" earned Brad a prestigious spot at Skip Ewings Horse and Writer Invitational where top Nashville songwriters choose 15 promising songwriters to mentor for a week.

In September 2012 Brad won Season 4 of Edmonton Undiscovered and Brad's first album "Overwhelm Us" recently won Inspirational Album of the Year at the 2013 Covenant Awards.

Brad has a Bachelor of Music from Briercrest Bible College and currently lives in Toronto, Ontario.
