

Biography

David Vaters "Forgive"

Highly Anticipated Sophomore Solo Album Volume 2 - A Voice in the Wilderness

David Vaters released his latest studio endeavor. Entitled 'Volume 2 - A Voice in the Wilderness,' the album comes on the heels of Vaters's first volume of solo work which was released to critical acclaim in 2017, to date with over 6 million streams and views on digital music platforms.

Infusing both Contemporary & Traditional Christian music, Americana and Classic Rock music with elements of alternative country, pop/rock, Vaters has quickly defined himself as a wholly unique talent quite unlike any other artist in the music industry.

As of May 1, 2018, Vaters is currently being played on over 125 Christian radio stations in the USA and to David's pleasant surprise many secular radio stations in the USA & Australia including BBC radio in the U.K. & Sky 1 Radio in the Netherlands.

David's video of this latest single "FORGIVE" already has over 70,000 views on GodTube and 110,000 views on YouTube even prior to this radio release of the single "Forgive".

Since launching his career as an independent artist David Vaters has enjoyed substantial critical acclaim which has crossover to both Christian, Country and Rock audiences. Hitting # 2 on Cashbox Magazines Looking Ahead Chart and #19 & climbing on the Country and Outlaw Chart for May 2018.

Vaters defies the norm in this regard, as his genre-spanning style as a song writer has landed him on a number of other notable charts. Volume 1 achieved millions music streams on digital music platforms within just 12 months. David achieved #1 worldwide Christian music position on ReverbNation, Top 100 on iTunes rock charts in Australia and Top 10 in Mexico. Vaters has proved his relevance as a up and coming talent to take note of.

Continued on next page

Even though these two recent collections of music marking Vaters' solo debut, he's anything but green. The veteran performer and songwriter honed his skills for many years recording on both sides of the Atlantic. Now on his own, Vaters has called upon colleagues to help his creative vision unfold.

Some of the industry's finest talent is on display on these albums, including musicians who have worked with the likes of Vince Gill, Peter Frampton, Kenny Loggins, Amy Grant, and others.

What are people saying about David Vaters?

CCM Magazine featured David in an interview recently describing him as, - "Something new, all over again!" CCM editors stated, "Get to know the unique talent of news singer songwriter David Vaters" His albums have been rated 4.25 stars by the editor of CCM Magazine!

JesusFreakHideout.com stated, " A voice in the Wilderness excels musically, with soothing music that can really touch the soul." Adding that, "When and artist comes out of the gate with an ambitious project , like a two album set to kick off their career you know they mean business."

David's Gospel messages are being accepted by secular media such as the Huffington Post's music critic, Randy Radic, stated, "David's music is creative and original, suffused with an ardent spiritual awareness rare in today's music industry."

"If this is the first album of his out of the starting blocks, at least in a titular sense, imagine what gems are likely to follow," raved Dave Franklin of Los Angeles - The Plug.

As Jamsphere.com recently stated, "A Voice In The Wilderness Volume 1" may be the best, most influential debut Americana album produced by any independent musician in the past decade, if not longer.

David's album 'Volume 2' boasts most of the same impressive line-up as its predecessor, a collaboration that had critics calling 'Volume 1' "nothing if not mature, deftly crafted and powerful." Like that album, 'Volume 2' is part of Vaters' 'A Voice in the Wilderness' collection of volumed records.

Notably David's first solo album Volume 1 was selected in the 1st round of voting for a Grammy in 2017 which unfortunately did not make the final cut for nomination however, it was quite an achievement for his rookie year! David was nominated for 2 GMA Canada Covenant Awards in 2017 as well.

This maverick singer songwriter, David Vaters, is bringing the Good News to both Christian and secular music industry and will be for many years to come!

