It's sometimes scary
for you just to try something new You've been hurt more times than you remember

It's sometimes hard
for you
to forgive the ones around you Because of what they did or said they left you wounded and for dead

Well you gotta forgive Don't hold it in It'll hurt you more then it will hurt them....
ya gotta forgive
Like the good book said
Take the high road
that will bless you and them.

Forgiveness is a choice for you to make for yourself Whether you're a believer or if you're not

Now I've been guilty of this crime
most of my life
So for all of you I've hurt along the way
Forgive me for everything
I've done or said

Well you gotta forgive
Don't hold it in
It will hurt you more then it will hurt them....
ya gotta forgive
just Like the good book said
Take the high road
that will bless you and them...

You wanna do what comes so natural
Get your revenge
get back at them all Or better yet
hurt them more than they hurt you
But I say Forgive
for they know not what they do

Oh you gotta forgive Don't hold it in It'll hurt you more
then it will hurt them....
ya gotta forgive
Like the good book said
Take the high road that will bless you and them...

when I forgive....
When you forgive...
When we forgive
You just gotta forgive
oh Forgive
