I met a man today, who said he'd lost his way. He turned away from God.

He made mistakes in life. He lost his home and wife, and he now feels life is too hard.

I told him lift his head don't be ashamed as sheep we all have gone astray.

But I know a savior who will make a way and this is what he heard me say, I told him

Every day with Jesus is sweeter than the day before, I told him

Every way with Jesus is sweeter than the day before

I met a women who, believed her love was true. Until he broke her heart

He left her on her own. Two kids to raise alone and she had no clue where to start

I told her there is hope for hopelessness On Jesus lay your cares upon

Come all that labor He will give you rest and He will heal your broken heart I told her

Every day with Jesus is Sweeter than the day before, I told him

Every day with Jesus is Sweeter than the day before

Sweeter much sweeter Sweeter than the day before

He's gonna lift you up, Sweeter, Sweeter than the day before

I'm telling you there is hope for hopelessness. On Jesus place your cares upon

Come all that labor He will give you rest and He will heal your broken heart I'm telling Every Day with Jesus is Sweeter than the day before, I told him

Every day with Jesus is Sweeter than the day before
