Eternity Focus "Love Me Like This"

Eternity Focus is an up and coming group of Contemporary Christian Recording Artists made up of four sisters; Alika, Danika, Janika and Lainika Seaman. Their newest single, Love Me Like This, was produced by Phil Naish & Eric Copeland for the project We Are Creative Soul released by Creative Soul Records in association with Word Entertainment. Love Me Like This was released the summer of 2013 and is available on iTunes.

Eternity Focus has been touring nationwide since the release of their first self-titled album in 2007. Since then, Eternity Focus, has recorded four albums including; Live the Lyrics (2011), More Than Christmas (2010), Nothing to Lose (2008) and Eternity Focus (2007).

Their newest album, Live the Lyrics, was recorded at Dark Horse Recording Studios and Givens House Studios in Franklin, TN. This album features six originals and fresh arrangements of some of today's top worship music. By listening to the message of hope found in Jesus, their goal is that everyone will be inspired to truly live the lyrics. They released the title track Live the Lyrics to radio in August of 2012 and it has been added to Christian stations worldwide.

In 2010, the group recorded album number three at Dark Horse Recording Studios in Franklin, TN. More Than Christmas features their Christmas single Wonder which aired on over 600 stations worldwide in 2010 and 2011.

Their second album, Nothing to Lose, was released in October of 2008. In August of 2008, Eternity Focus placed in the Top 7 in the Group Artistry Category at the Gospel Music Association's Music in the Rockies held in Estes Park, CO. I Choose You (featured on their second album Nothing to Lose) placed in the Top 20 in the Songwriting Competition at GMA's Music in the Rockies as well.

Prior to the group's first album release in April of 2007, Eternity Focus was invited to compete in the National Fine Arts Festival (NFAF) for six years (2001-2007). While competing their final year at NFAF in August of 2007, their song Unmistakable, featured on their first album, placed third in the nation at the National Fine Arts Festival in the Individual Songwriting Category. Likewise, their song I Still Believe was awarded fifth in the nation in the Collaborated Songwriting competition.
