

Lyrics

Grant June "When I Hear You Speak"

WRITERS: Chad Cates, Grant June, Pamella Bowen | LICENSING: ©2017 Five Kisses Music (ASCAP)

I hear voices that tell me that I'm not good enough
And all I keep hearing is I should just give up
Don't wanna listen to the lies that only drain my life
Tear me down, and make me wanna run

When I hear you speak, saying you love me
You unbreak what the enemy's broken
You calm the sea storming inside me
You are the one I forever put my hope in Jesus, there is peace, when I hear you speak

When I feel defeated and walk back down that road
You whisper you're with me, offering me hope
Lord, I wanna be where you want me to be
So I will follow your still, small voice

When I hear you speak, saying you love me
You unbreak what the enemy's broken
You calm the sea storming inside me
You are the one I forever put my hope in Jesus, there is peace, when I hear you...

Speak into my dark, and I know I'm not alone
When you speak into my heart it feels like home

When I hear you speak, saying you love me
You unbreak what the enemy's broken
You calm the sea storming inside me
You are the one I forever put my hope in
Jesus, there is peace
Jesus, I am free
When I hear you speak