

Lyrics

Lights Align "Your Name"

You are hope to all the earth
At your name, mountains quake
You still the seas, their roaring waves
Where morning dawns, where evening fades
The earth is singing your name, your name

You are joy despite the pain
In the darkest days, you are the summer rain
That comes down softly all around
You bring life from this broken ground
That's why we're singing your name
Your name

Jesus, the reason that we sing
Jesus, sustainer of all things

You are mine, and I am yours
In your time, you have opened every door
And so I'm singing your name, Your name

Jesus, the reason that we sing
Jesus, sustainer of all things
You're so high above
Yet thinking of us
Great is your love
It's always enough

And who am I, that you would listen closely?
My heart will cry to you the one and only God

Jesus, the reason that we sing
Jesus, sustainer of all things
You're so high above
Yet thinking of us
Great is your love
It's always enough
For me
For me
