Marie A. Garton “Love Like You”

Marie A. Garton is a contemporary Christian artist, singer/songwriter, worship leader, actor, and speaker. At the age of 5, Marie took her first steps on stage singing as an angel in a choir and knew that this was her calling. Her prayers for God to use her talent to touch the lives of many people started at the age of 12. Several weeks after being taught guitar, Marie began her journey as a worship leader. Marie says, “I believe that as we step out in faith and believe in His goodness, only then can we be what He has truly created us to be. My prayer is that the music that I write may reflect that connection as well as my personal relationship with God.”

Marie has been involved with music on the local and national scenes as a worship leader in many local churches and as a member of several professional choirs. She has had the blessed opportunity to sing in beautiful venues: churches, the Allen Arena for the DOVE Awards, and in Carnegie Hall, and has sung with well-known Christian artists, including Dana, Michael W. Smith, Steve Green, Steven Curtis Chapman, Reba McEntire, and Big Daddy Weave.

Marie released her debut EP, “Crimson & Gold”, a 5-song worship project co-written with and produced by Margaret Becker, in the spring of 2017. In June 2018, Marie will be releasing her sophomore EP, “Beautiful”; 7 original songs that share pieces of her life. Her single, “Love Like You”, will soon be released to Christian radio. Marie is grateful for Bernard Porter and her mentors at PCG Universal in Nashville, TN. “They have been so generous with the sharing of their gifts, which have allowed me to grow as an artist,” Garton says. In her EP, Marie shares much gratitude to you, the listener: “Thank you for listening to my music – may you find your story within these songs and be embraced by hope and redemption.”
