We've been heading down this road for a season
Looking ever for a shining horizon
Have we forgotten 'bout our reason for leavin'?
Better turn it around

I was navigating the maps and the weather
Thought we were heading for the house of your father
But I think we've gotten lost all together
Better turn it around

Turn this boat around
Take us back to where we started from
Find that holy ground
Back where we began in Bethlehem

I couldn't bear it if you left me behind you
I just want to see the signals that guide you
Let's go back, we can begin where I found you
Better turn it around

Turn this boat around
Take us back to where we started from
Find that holy ground
Back where we began in Bethlehem

Have we missed out on the turn for the better?
Did we leave behind the gift of the giver?
Can we realize our journey without here?
Better turn it around
