Steventhen Holland "I Will Praise Him Still"

Steventhen Holland is a Nashville recording artist, worship leader, author and speaker. He and his wife, Rachel, have three beautiful daughters and base their ministry out of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Steventhen has an incredibly powerful story and message to share with the world. His eighteen-year-old, mentally challenged mother was gang-raped! Facing seemingly impossible odds (low I.Q., alone, homeless and being pressured to abort daily) she still chose LIFE! He was placed in foster care and adopted. He spent most of his life with many questions and no answers, but at 27 years old he was reunited with his birth mother!

Each song on his EP, "Broken Not Dead," delivers a message of hope and reminds the listener of God's peace and sovereignty, despite earthly troubles.

Steventhen's desire to bring others to the joy of God's hope, along with his gifts as a talented musician and vocalist, set him apart as a song-writer, musician, and worship leader.

Steventhen has led worship in many different ministry settings over the last 18 years. He has served on church staffs as a worship leader and ministered to many churches and Christian organizations as a guest artist.
