Whitlee Casey "Alive In You Tonight"

Whitlee Casey is a worship leader and songwriter from a small town called Troy, TX. Whitlee has been traveling, performing his music and leading worship across the tri-state area for over 8 years now.

In 2008, The Whitlee Casey Band was formed. For the next two and a half years they would travel all around Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Texas ministering to youth groups and churches. They were nominated for the 2009 M.A.C.T (Music Association of Central Texas) Gospel Band of The Year Award. As they began to start new journeys in winter of 2010, there was still a strong passion for music in Whitlee's heart. So he continued to serve the Lord by ministering in music on the road. Since his solo career started, Whitlee has had the honor to share the stage with some of Today's best Christian Talent. Seventh Day Slumber, Remedy Drive, and MikesChair.

"Christian music has impacted my lifestyle beginning when I was a teenager. I was saved at the age of 13 and began surrounding myself with people who would keep me accountable with my faith in Christ. There's not a doubt in my mind that God's has called me to lead worship at my home church and Minister with music around the country when the opportunity comes!"
